CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

• Entrants must be below 35 years of age on 31 May 2008 (that is born after 31 May 1973). Entrants must normally be residents of Australia. • The manuscript submitted with the entry form should be a work of fiction, Australian history or biography. • It must be a minimum length of 30,000 words and a maximum of 100,000 words. • Please include a one page synopsis. • The manuscript must be an original work, entirely by the entrant and it must be written in English. It cannot be under consideration to any other publisher or award. No more than 10% of the manuscript can have been previously published in print form, or in electronic form on a commercial basis. • Allen & Unwin will publish the winning entry, and will have exclusive worldwide publishing rights to it, and to any other entry they feel is of sufficient merit. • The manuscript must be in double spaced type on A4 paper, and unbound, i.e. without clips, staples, folders or any other form of binding material. • Entrants must lodge their entry with an accompanying official entry form or the entry may be deemed ineligible for the prize. • Entries must be lodged with an accompanying cheque to cover the entry fee of $25. Cheques to be made out to The Australian/Vogel Literary Award. • Entries must be lodged by 31 May 2008. • An acknowledgment will be sent to each entrant on receipt of entry. • The judges' decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into. • The winner(s) will be announced in the The Australian during September 2008. • The judges shall have the discretion to divide the prize equally between authors of entries they consider of equal merit. If, in their opinion, no entry is worthy of the prize, no winner shall be chosen. No entrant may win the prize in successive years. • In 2008, the $50,000 prize comprises $25,000 prize and $25,000 advance. • Manuscripts will not be returned. • Each entrant is required to sign the entry form, which binds them to the above conditions of entry.
