

Girlfriend fiction

Looking for an engrossing read to recommend to a teenage girl? Try this new series!

- Entertaining, with strong characters
- Real-life and real emotions
- Great stories to help motivate teens to keep reading
- Created by the best established authors and exciting new writers, including Barry Jonsberg, Penni Russon, Kate Constable, Lili Wilkinson, Georgia Clark and Rowena Mohr

What do girls think?

'I loved [Girlfriend Fiction 1]! I just finished Year 10 and Erin seemed really real, like you could totally imagine the whole thing actually happening. It was a funny and easy book to read.' - Ellen, 16

'I loved [Girlfriend Fiction 2]. It was one of those books I couldn't put down ... Penni Russon has produced a truly remarkable piece of writing ... 9 out of 10.' - Sophie, 18

'I absolutely loved [Girlfriend Fiction 4]. The characters are really interesting and multifaceted and easy to relate to. Plus it's funny' - Jasmine, 16

Created in conjunction with Girlfriend magazine

- With a massive readership of around 400,000 girls, Girlfriend knows girls
- The link with the magazine will help us – and you – to put great stories into the hands of teenage girls

'Girlfriend loves music and boys and Myspace. We also like to encourage girls to look at pop culture with a critical eye and to do things to expand their minds, like reading.

'I couldn't be more excited to be launching a teen fiction series that so accurately and genuinely reflects Australian youth culture right now.' – Sarah Oakes, Editor, Girlfriend

Visit
www.allenandunwin.com/girlfriendfiction

- Get a taste of the series by reading an extract
- Read real-life stories about the authors who created Girlfriend Fiction – find out about the different paths each writer has taken through life
- Learn out what it's really like to be a writer and receive tips about your own writing
- Check out recommendations for more great reads
- Submit your own feedback about the series
- And more ...

Ages 13-16.
Eight new titles per year.
Recommended retail price
AU$14.95/NZ$17.99 each.